

Tribal Challenge Party Program Example

Parents are responsible for checking in at the office prior to party start time and providing our on duty staff member with a copy of the names list, waiver/s and making final payment if required.

Your Woodhouse party host will meet you 5-10 minutes prior to party start time, at the car park opposite the office

Time	Activity	Parent's Duties	Instructions
5 mins	Introduction	Nil	Party host will introduce themselves & welcome guests to your child's birthday party
10 mins	Tribes  Human Knots	Nil	Make your own tribal Headdress! (6-9 years)  A group challenge designed to get the children working and communicating well together within their 'Tribes'. (10-14 years)
90 mins	Challenge Hill	Provide 1 Supervising adult per 10 children to accompany our party host.	Host will take group to archway & either conduct or contact duty warden for safety briefing
15-20 mins	Snack time	Parents to organise and provide all food & drinks.	Host will bring group back to party site for drinks and snacks Our host will use this time to set up for remaining activities (i.e. blow up balloons)
10 mins	Tails  Balloon Pop	Nil	Tails (6-9 years): Fast-paced fun  Balloon Pop (10-14 years): A fun & very noisy game
10-15 mins	Rob the Nest/ Magic Carpets	Nil	A team challenge designed to test your children's problem solving skills...
10 mins	Stuck in the mud/ Shark Attack	Nil	Don't get caught...
10 mins	Jelly Bean Relay	Nil	First team to get all their jelly beans across wins!
15 mins	Dodge Ball	Nil	A popular team game, can be played a variety of ways (our favourite is a version played so that every child is a part of the whole game and there is no sitting out waiting!)
5 mins	Tug-of-war	Adults may like to play too!	Fun for all ages, this challenge is as much about strategy as it is about brawn...
5 mins	Cake/ Finish	Parents to provide birthday cake/ candles/ matches/ party bags	Our party host will facilitate singing 'Happy Birthday' to the birthday child before packing up equipment and saying goodbye. Your group is more than welcome to stay on until 5pm to enjoy any of our other free activity options
